DETAILED ACTION

The application is revived.

Claims 100-111 are pending. A species requirement is now solicited. Although in a prior action the claims were objected to as being directed to allowable subject matter, the Office has now reconsidered this position. The Applicant is, however, advised that the claims are toward a device in which non-medical art must be searched (ex. mechanical valves), outside of the normal purview (electrosurgical devices) of the Examiner. Further, the specification and drawings are replete with information not needed for interpretation of the claims. The specific information found in the spec and drawings needed for claim interpretation is also scant. For example, the claims are directed to figures 14-16, and corresponding description is not found until page 27 of the specification. The remainder of the drawings and spec is superfluous. The Applicant is of course free to file this style of application, however, it should be known that this style makes examination more difficult and burdensome, with a greater chance of error.

This action is non-final.

This application contains claims directed to the following patentably distinct species of the claimed invention:

Species I claims 100-101, 105-107 and 111 are depicted in figure 14 (hinge lever and magnets);

Species II claims 102, 108 are depicted in figure 15 (seating cams);

Species III claims 103-104, 109-110 are depicted in figure 16 (gear rack mounted lever and magnets).

The Examiner does not know and is not helped by the specification as to what is a gear rack mounted lever. The phrase "gear rack mounted lever" is not found in the specification (it is intimated on page 29). A Google search of the phrase, "gear rack mounted lever" returns nothing.

Applicant is required under 35 U.S.C. 121 to elect a single disclosed species for prosecution on the merits to which the claims shall be restricted if no generic claim is finally held to be allowable. Currently, no claims are generic.

Applicant is advised that a reply to this requirement must include an identification of the species that is elected consonant with this requirement, and a listing of all claims readable thereon, including any claims subsequently added. An argument that a claim is allowable or that all claims are generic is considered nonresponsive unless accompanied by an election.

Upon the allowance of a generic claim, applicant will be entitled to consideration of claims to additional species which are written in dependent form or otherwise include all the limitations of an allowed generic claim as provided by 37 CFR 1.141. If claims are added after the election, applicant must indicate which are readable upon the elected species. MPEP § 809.02(a).

Should applicant traverse on the ground that the species are not patentably distinct, applicant should submit evidence or identify such evidence now of record showing the species to be obvious variants or clearly admit on the record that this is the case. In either instance, if the examiner finds one of the inventions unpatentable over the prior art, the evidence or admission may be used in a rejection under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) of the other invention.

A telephone call was made to Terry Meador on 8-2-05 to request an oral election to the above restriction requirement, but did not result in an election being made.

Applicant is advised that the reply to this requirement to be complete must include an election of the invention to be examined even though the requirement be traversed (37 CFR 1.143).

Applicant is reminded that upon the cancellation of claims to a non-elected invention, the inventorship must be amended in compliance with 37 CFR 1.48(b) if one or more of the currently named inventors is no longer an inventor of at least one claim remaining in the application. Any amendment of inventorship must be accompanied by a request under 37 CFR 1.48(b) and by the fee required under 37 CFR 1.17(i).
